Elect Leaders for Christ

“And this is my prayer, that your love may overflow more and more with knowledge and full insight to help you to determine what is best...” Philippians 1:1-26 (NRSV)

Paul’s affection for the church in Philippi reminds me a lot of our affection for this community and The Walk to Emmaus. Paul begins the letter by referring to fond memories (vs. 1). Isn’t it the memory of our own personal Walks and the power of the Risen Christ in our three-day experience that gives us the passion for this ministry? And isn’t it even more true, “that the One who began a good work among you (on your personal Walk) will bring it to completion by the day of Jesus Christ” (vs. 6)? The mission of the Emmaus movement is to raise leaders in the local church. Paul’s mission: to raise leaders in the church plant of Philippi. Are we doing every thing possible in our 4th days to raise leaders for Christ? Paul was sitting in jail and still offering impeccable sponsorship to his pilgrims.

The Board met with the International Lay Director and our Emmaus Regional Representative this weekend, and I can tell you that the International office in Nashville is making great strides to enhance leadership across the globe. Every year the new Class of Board of Directors will attend a training session in the southeast region. Although this does adhere to the age-old adage “knowledge is power,” it’s much more than that. Relationships with our international officers, regional volunteers and other communities will begin to form and strengthen over time. Our community has learned in the past couple of years that relationship is key-with one another and with the Nashville folks. Greg Engroff, the International Lay Director to whom I refer, is committed to relationship. This weekend we laughed, ate (fine Southern cuisine

Applications

We are in the process of “revamping” our data base for CMWE. We would really appreciate your cooperation. 1) In order for you to work on a team, the team selection committee must have an application. Applications are discarded each time you work on a team and another application must be submitted to have on file for you to serve on future walks. Consider filling out a new application while working a walk and handing it to your Lay Director. 2) If you are a future Lay Director and the team selection committee has given you a list of names, turn in any misinformation you find to Paula Stubbs. If this is not done, then we pass on the same incorrect information time after time. Thank you for you help.

at The Cock of the Walk), prayed, and discussed honestly those topics close to our hearts. These are ordinary guys serving the Kingdom with an insurmountable love for Christ and His instrument, The Walk to Emmaus.

Godly leadership is the bottom line. Paul was a rebel in the eyes of some, but no one doubted his leadership. He prays earnestly for his friends in verse 9 for the kind of knowledge and insight that produces a love that overflows. In this newsletter you will find a ballot for the new Class of Board of Directors. Yes, we want our board to have knowledge and wisdom, but more importantly we want love. Love for God above all else and as much love for his/her neighbor as he/she has for himself/herself. “Business” plays a distant third along with agenda’s, skill, traditions and rules. I am confident in the Holy Spirit’s initial and continual involvement in the Emmaus movement. I wasn’t there the moment He breathed life into this movement, but I have close ties to a man who was, and I trust him and Him. Elect disciples, elect those you trust, elect to move forward with the rest of the world in the only 4th day movement continuing to grow (this, according to Greg), elect LEADERS FOR CHRIST.

Only by His Grace,
Joy Davis
