Miracle Moments

"The best way to prepare yourself for your own miracle is to rejoice in someone else's." Bill Johnson

We ask our Heavenly Father to perform miracles, but do we truly "expect a miracle?" My hometown church is preparing for a special healing service wherein we will host a guest speaker who has witnessed hundreds of miracle healings in the past several years. In fact, during a recent revival at this Pastor's home church the fire department received over 50 calls to 911 because people in the town saw flames of fire shooting from the church's rooftop. But when the firemen arrived, there was no fire! About 400 people were there filled with the Holy Spirit and crying out to God to thank Him for the miracles that they had received. Some received physical healing, some received peace from burdens, but all who were present received the power of the Holy Spirit. I have seen the Holy Spirit working mightily in all of the walks this past year, and I praise Him for sending servants that are there for no other reason but to show God's love and glorify Him in humble service.

I also ask that you lift up special prayers for the families of the Rolling Fork community who just lost two beautiful teenage daughters in a car wreck. Our hearts go out to their families and to the entire community. May God give them the peace and comfort that only HE can provide at this time.

As we pray for our Pilgrims and Teams who will attend the upcoming October walks, let's pray with ASSURANCE that God will deliver His mighty power to every square inch of that very special place we call Camp Wesley Pines. May we all "Expect A Miracle!"

Your Sister in Him,

Tammy Childress
