Central Mississippi Walk to Emmaus

Camp Wesley Pines, Gallman, Miss.

Walk 129, Nick Errington February 20-23
 Walk 130, Teresa Viramontez .. Feb 27-Mar 2

Fruit of the Spirit

"But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control. Against such things there is no law."

Galatians 5:22-23

Preparations have been ongoing for Walks #129 and #130 for several months now. God has placed the Team members right where He wants them. Prayers are already being lifted for the Pilgrims who will be attending.

Just like the three legs of the stool that we hear about in the talks given during the weekend, we need three things to come together for a successful walk: team members, pilgrims, and SPONSORS. Without a team, there would be no Walk. Without pilgrims there would be no need for a team. But it is YOU, the sponsor, that brings the pilgrim to Camp Wesley Pines for the team to work by and through the leading of the Holy Spirit. When team, pilgrims, and sponsors converge at the camp, the Holy Spirit takes over.

My plea this year is for us to pray for our sponsors just as diligently as we pray for the team and pilgrims. Being a sponsor is a loving sacrifice of both time and money. Do you remember your own sponsor? Someone lovingly did it for YOU. And oh, the fruits that have been produced by this beautiful ministry of CMWE.

If you have not sponsored a pilgrim for a while, please take time to pray that God puts the very person in your path that HE would choose for the next Walk. Today more than ever we must lift up our leaders in the church who are hungry for a deeper relationship with Him.

Being a sponsor means being the hands and feet of Christ as we not only make preparations for our pilgrim, but we also attend to any needs of the pilgrim's family while they are participating in the Walk.

I personally have family members that I have hounded and badgered for years to go on the Walk, but when I started asking God who HE wanted there, then potential pilgrims started crossing my path quite often.

Jesus himself was not taken seriously by those in His own family and in His own community. But that did not deter Him from doing His Father's work.

I thank God for each member of this community. Every one of you has a unique and special gift, and when the Holy Spirit fills the camp, the fruits of the Spirit are overflowing. I look forward to praying for you this year, along with YOUR pilgrim.

Your Sister in Christ,

Tammy Childress
