Power Points to Ponder

Pray all are well and blessed in the Lord. God's goodness is worth "pondering." Webster defines pondering as "to consider something deeply and thoroughly; meditate – to weigh carefully in the mind." Synonyms are many – cogitate, ruminare, deliberate, evaluate, speculate, contemplate and excogitate are a few.

The message here is – not something to engage superficially or casually. That said, may we all look inwardly – as we cogitate or ruminare on the following.

- I now have a new attitude toward sin in that I am unresponsive to or dead to it.
- I now have a new attitude toward God in that I am alive to God in obedience.
- I now commit my members to God as instruments of righteousness and yield same to nothing else.
- My life is now a witness to the world – My thoughts, words and deeds.
- I now see sin like God does . . .
- I now have an unquenchable thirst to study God's word.
- My life in GRACE is stable.
- The supporting legs of PIETY, STUDY, and ACTION are intact.

Your Emmaus Board wishes all a blessed and obedient life in service for the Kingdom.

De Colores,

Bo Gabbert
