Who is the Servant?

Martha was worried about something good. She is having Jesus over for dinner. She is literally serving God. Her aim was to please Jesus. But she made a common, yet dangerous mistake. As she began to work for him, her work became more important than her Lord. What began as a way to serve Jesus, slowly and subtly became a way to serve self. She had forgotten that the meal is to honor Jesus, not Martha.

"Martha was distracted with much serving... But Mary has chosen that good part, which will not be taken away from her." Luke 11:40-42.

How often times in our journey with Jesus that we forget whom we are serving! Everyone does forget at times in our lives, but Jesus will nudge and remind you with every step of the way!

Emmaus will do this for you. When you work on a walk, Jesus reminds us to pattern our lives after him. He became a servant to us, we rejected him, but he still pursued us.

Thanks for all the faithful servants that leave their busy lives behind at home, and put on the cloths of a servant and give yourself to Jesus. Thanks for your time, presence, and talents that you bring to the Durr-Wise Camp at each Emmaus Walk. Even when we get it wrong, Jesus never gives up on us, Love is always waiting ...

Thank you to the many servants that arrive at Emmaus with each walk!

De Colores,

Sue Sullivan

Team applications can also be printed, completed, and sent to Leila Malatesta for Emmaus and the completed Chrysalis forms to Marna Walker at cmchrysalis2018@gmail.com.
